

GRIPS & HAND STOPS

A photograph of two tactical operators in a doorway. The operator in the foreground is wearing a black cap, sunglasses, and a headset, looking intently through the sights of a rifle. The operator in the background is also in tactical gear, including a helmet with an American flag patch, and is aiming a rifle. The scene is brightly lit, suggesting an outdoor or well-lit indoor environment.

A MEANS OF CONTROL

A tailored fit. Pay attention to the details and integrate the rifle with the shooter. Select your ergonomics from an expansive collection of pistol grips and foregrips and configure the finer points with our shooter driven set of UTG® hand stops.
